The one-minute eye-movement routine

Slow, steady movements for eyes held at one distance all day.

- For tired, strained eyes
- About 1 minute · Once or twice a day

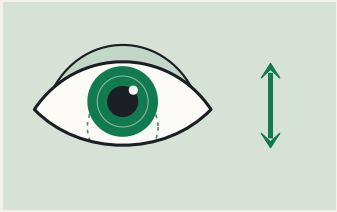

1 Side to side

— 5 times

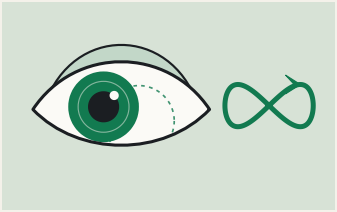

2 Up and down

Look up to the ceiling, then down to the floor.

— 5 times

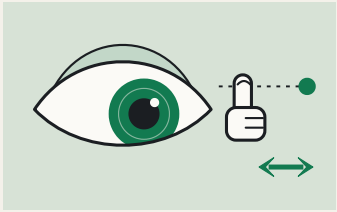

3 Figure eight

Trace a wide sideways eight with your eyes.

— 3 times each way

4 Near and far

Look at your thumb at arm's length, then across the room.

— 5 times

Do this routine during a break from your screen. Stop if your eyes feel uncomfortable.
